Get Golf Ready Tournament

Shotgun Start!

The Get Golf Ready Tournament is a fun event for you and your fellow classmates to get on the course in a fun environment.

The format of play is a fun 9 hole event. It's all about having a great time with friends! Play also includes various fun proximity marker events. These include closest to the pin, shortest drive, closest to the water without going in, etc. After play, the group meets in the restaurant to award prizes to the winners.

Rates and Registration

$70 Entry Fee Per Person Includes Golf, Cart, and Prizes.

If rental clubs are needed, these are included with your entry fee. To register, sign up on our online store under Get Golf Ready Tournaments.

Instructors

Blake Smith
PGA Professional
blakesmith@pga.com

Blake has been an instructor at the John Jacobs Golf Schools and Golf Digest Golf Schools. He has been a Head Golf Professional and General Manager at multiple facilities, and was named the 2005 and 2007 Teacher of the Year in Alaska. His philosophy is to help each golfer to discover and understand their best golfing model, not mold a golfer to one style.

Matt Acuff
info@truenorthgolfschool.com

Matt has taught players of all levels and capabilities, working with Club Champions, aspiring tour professionals, golfers with disabilities, adults, seniors, and elite junior golfers. With over 30 years of teaching experience, Matt has made a strong impact in Junior Golf. One of his treasured accomplishments is every elite junior he has taught has earned a college scholarship, including teaching the first golfer with Down syndrome in history to earn a college scholarship. What makes Matt an excellent teacher is his uncanny ability to understand the golf swing of each student. No two swings are alike, and Matt has an instinct to see what people are doing right, and what to change.
